

Advisory: False Job References

Inquirehire has identified a website that provides false professional references to job applicants for a fee. The website is www.careerexcuse.com.

Job seekers can utilize this site to purchase fake professional references to overcome gaps in employment, poor references, or a lack of professional references.

Here is a list of the services listed on the website:

- You Choose Your Career History!
- You Pick Your Start and End Date!
- You Choose your Salary!
- We Provide a Real Company Just for You!
- We Provide a Real Address For That Company!
- We Provide a Real Website For That Company!
- We Provide a Real "800" Phone Number!
- We Will Have our Operators Standing By!
- We Will E-mail you Every Time Someone Calls!

With unemployment at historic rates, job seekers may be more inclined to utilize this type of service to mitigate any blemish on their record.

Inquirehire offers a web-based reference checking service that enables employers to obtain real, comprehensive evaluations of applicant work history, without time consuming and potentially fake phone calls. Reference providers respond at a 75% rate and normal turnaround is 1 o 2 days.
